- Sharon & Andy Castro, Denver

Days 1 & 2 (self-guided): Madrid: Start your tour in Spain's capital city - a center of culture, tapas bars and Flamenco. You can sleep off the worst of your jet lag, and perhaps hit the Prado Museum and a lively Madrid bar, before a quick overnight and morning high-speed train to Pamplona (a 3.5 hr trip).

Days 2-5 (guided Pamplona): Our guides pick you up at Pamplona's train station. Following a quick van transfer to your Pamplona hotel, check-in, then enjoy a walking tour of the city followed by a free afternoon and evening to fiesta. The next morning, see Pamplona's exciting bull run from the safety of our private balconies followed by VIP breakfast at the exclusive Palacio Guendulain - Pamplona's only palace. Then explore the festival's many parades, processions and concerts. The following day, join a morning bull run or "encierro" or watch the revelry from Pamplona's arena. At night, head off to the evening bullfights followed by a private send-off dinner with stunning views of the evening fireworks. The next day, you can run again before the transfer to Pamplona's train station for your trip to Barcelona.

Day 5-7 (self-guided): Train transfer to Barcelona. Once nestled in your centrally-located hotel, enjoy Barcelona's beaches, bars, sights and famous nightlife for 2 days before flying home. The perfect holiday.
